

Bloom Where You're Planted

J. A. R.

James A. Reese

F

1. The patch in which you're plant-ed
 2. The place where God has put you
 * 3. If you are not now plant-ed
 4. Now put your root down deep - er

C7

may have its thorns and weeds, The ground that you've been grant - ed can be a per - fect place, The pace that He's in - tend - ed where God can smile on you, If you have not been grant - ed in - to God's book di - vine, Your leaves will be much green - er,

F F7

may have its rocks and reeds; The slope on which you're slant - ed is just the per - fect pace; The grace that He will give you a life that's fresh and new; Then you can be trans - plant - ed your flow - ers' fra-grance fine; Your fruit will ri - pen rich - er

Gm C C7 F

may all have gone to seed, But is all - suf - fi - cient grace, So BLOOM WHERE YOU'RE PLANT-ED for the Lord.
 as on - ly Christ can do, And for heav-en's har - vest time, So

Bloom Where You're Planted - 2

CHORUS

F C7

BLOOM WHERE YOU'RE PLANT-ED, God's sun still shines a - bove,

F

BLOOM WHERE YOU'RE PLANT-ED, He show - ers you with love;

F7 Gm

Weeds may grow and winds may blow, but keep your head up high,

C F C7 F

And BLOOM WHERE YOU'RE PLANT-ED, keep grow - ing toward the sky.

CODA (after last chorus)

Gm D Gm C7 F Gm7 G° F

Keep grow - ing toward the sky, sky, grow - ing Toward the sky!