

Eye Has Not Seen

*In loving memory of one who now sees,
Alice Joyce McLeod Campbell*

Words and music by Jim Reese
© Copyright 1964 by Diadem. Assigned to Benson.

God's wondrous glory is seen in the splendor
Of flowers strewn on hillsides and stars flung in space;
But a prospect far greater, of infinite grandeur
Awaits the redeemed when they see Jesus' face.

Refrain from 1 Corinthians 2:9

Eye has not seen, Ear has not heard,
Neither has entered into the heart of man,
The things which God has prepared for them
That love Him.

Melodies sweeter than man could e'er render
Will swell with the voices of angels and saints;
But sweeter to hear the blest voice of the Savior
Who speaks with a love that dissolves all restraints.

We cannot see the divine preparation
Now made by the Savior in mansions above;
But soon shall the dawn of completed redemption
Reveal to the Bride all the Bridegroom's great love.