

Heaven or Hell

Words and music by Jim Reese
© Copyright 1964 by Diadem. Assigned to Benson.

Almost everyone talks about Heaven so fair,
And they think the good Lord will get all of them there.
But the truth hasn't changed from what Scriptures do tell;
You can't argue with God,
There's a Heaven and there's a Hell.

Chorus

Heaven or Hell, O what will it be
When eternity beckons for you and for me?
My trust is in Christ,
For me all is well:
But for you my dear friend,
Is it Heaven or Hell?

You may think there's a lifetime to settle the score,
But before you expect it this life will be o'er.
It will then be too late your repentance to tell,
For the bargain is closed,
You gave Heaven for Hell.

Do not wait at the crossroads of life anymore,
Take the pathway that leads to that Heavenly shore.
Seek the Savior today, in your heart let Him dwell;
In that great judgment morn,
You'll get Heaven or Hell.