Once there was a Baby,
Born in Bethlehem,
Born to bring us life and peace,
Born God's gift to men;
Rich men came to worship,
Poor men to Him ran,
Angels sang, the heavens rang
When God became a man.

Chorus

Let us worship Jesus,
Let us praise and sing,
Let us love this blessed Lord,
Born to be our King.

Once there was a Teacher,
Lived in Galilee,
Lived a perfect, holy life
For all men to see;
Helped the sick and needy,
Fed the multitude,
Preached the Word of truth and grace,
Taught us what is good.

Once there was a Savior,
Died on Calvary,
Died because we hated Him,
Died in agony;
O what grief He suffered,
O what awful pain,
But it was the only way
He our souls could gain.

Once there was a Conqueror,
Risen from the grave,
Victor over sin and death,
Mighty now to save;
Lord of earth and heaven,
Priest and King to reign,
Soon God's trumpet call will sound,
Christ will come again!

Chorus

Let us worship Jesus,
Let us praise and sing,
Let us watch and wait for Him,
Christ, the King of Kings!
