

Wonderful Eternity

Words and music by Jim Reese
© Copyright 1964 by Diadem. Assigned to Benson.

There's a Wonderful Eternity
Awaiting in the sky;
When the clouds shall rend, the trump shall sound,
And Christ shall reign on high.
O, what joy will flood my trembling soul
As on His face I gaze.
I'll behold Him, I'll be like Him,
I'll be His for endless days.

Chorus

Wonderful Eternity,
O, how glorious it will be
When my blessed Lord I see.
Wonderful Eternity.

There's a Wonderful Eternity
Prepared in mansions bright,
When the sting of death shall lose its power,
And faith shall change to sight.
In that everlasting day of rest,
The victor's song we'll raise.
No more sorrow, no more sighing,
Only joy and peace and praise.